MONTHLY NEWSLETTER FOR THE CITY OF SEDALIA

IN THIS ISSUE

As we approach Thanksgiving, our City gathers in the spirit of gratitude, reflection and togetherness. This time of year, provides a wonderful opportunity to pause, count our blessings, and extend kindness to those around us. Whether you're spending the day with family, friends, or participating in a community event, Thanksgiving serves as a reminder of the importance of connection, compassion, and shared experiences. Let us take this chance to express gratitude for our neighbors and the sense of unity that makes our community strong.

As we gather with loved ones this holiday, let's remember to extend our gratitude not only to those closest to us, but also to the broader community. Thanksgiving is a time to strengthen the bonds that hold us together, celebrate our shared humanity, and express appreciation for all that we have. Whether through a kind word, a shared meal, or an act of service, there are many ways to give thanks.

Often times it's the little random acts of kindness that touch our heart the most. You don't get the opportunity to tell that someone who buys your coffee in the drive through line thank you; therefore, you return the favor and pay it forward. This may create a chain of events that touches many others by one person's simple act of kindness. Former President John F. Kennedy said, "As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them." May we live our life with thankfulness and gratitude in our hearts and display it for all to see.

Charlie Brown summed it up best when he asked, "What if today we were grateful for everything?"

Wishing everyone a safe, joyful, and fulfilling Thanksgiving. May the spirit of gratitude fill your hearts and homes, and may our community continue to thrive in unity and generosity.
